Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer moving image file is deemed to be objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. It is a short video clip that presents sexualised images of a young girl. The material invites viewers to regard young girls as appropriate subjects for adult sexual desire. The availability of such material creates or reinforces a sexual interest in children and encourages their exploitation. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression affirmed by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this outcome is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) will be banned. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
